

Secaucus Public Library

The Flavors & History of African Food

Wednesday,
February 26th
6:30 pm
Panasonic Rm.

In Celebration of Black History Month, come take a historical journey of food and learn how African cultures have influenced what we eat in the United States and around the world. You will enjoy a food tasting by Chef Sean Hassan, of Rythm N Food, as we discuss topics such as: Soul Food, French Creole, Caribbean Cuisine, and a variety of other foods we have come to know and love. Library programs are ADA-accessible. Special accommodations are available upon request.

Space is limited please register at secaucuslibrary.org